SELECTED AS HOMELAND SECURITY TODAY
GTSC STRATEGIC PARTNER OF THE YEAR

Nonprofit organization recognizes Federal, State and Local heroes from across the nation

Great Falls, VA - 12/1/19 -- Homeland Security Today, the premier nonprofit news organization for homeland security news, analysis, and insights, announced selections for the 2019 HSToday Homeland Heroes Awards, including GTSC Strategic Partner of the Year - GovConRx.

"Annually we receive numerous nominations from across the nation of extraordinary people doing tremendous work on behalf of their communities, their states, and their country, and we want to honor and recognize their contributions," said Kristina Tanasichuk, Executive Editor of Homeland Security Today and CEO of the Government Technology & Services Coalition. "We want to be sure that these selfless, incredibly hard-working individuals know that there are people who appreciate what they do and want to honor their work on behalf of all of us."

Each year, Homeland Security Today selects some very special people who support the mission of homeland and national security in their jobs, in their free time, or both.

GovConRx provides Acquisition Advisory Consulting services focused on helping federal contractors successfully grow and sustain their government business. GovConRx's Contract Wellness solutions include post award proactive contract performance management support ensuring our clients obtain the highest accurate Contractor Performance Assessment Reporting System (CPARS) ratings they earned and deserve. The GovConRx team consists of former federal acquisition executives and contracting officials with more than 300 collective years of acquisition related experience who use that experience and trusted relationships to provide unique procurement insider insights. We employ a carefully crafted mix of tools, processes, and effective contractor-government dialog to ensure our clients' contract performance is accurately documented, rated and leveraged to keep existing, as well as win, new federal contracts. Advocating good contract performance directly promotes program successes and better mission outcomes.
